Guidelines and Evaluation pattern for Field Project (FP)

The field project is designed for undergraduate courses to give students the opportunity to participate in hands-on, field-based projects under faculty supervision. A field project allows students to apply their theoretical knowledge to real-world situations by conducting observations, surveys, interviews, and other activities outside the classroom. This experience helps students gain practical skills and develop their communication, innovative thinking, and teamwork abilities.

Course Outcomes:

By the end the course the students would:

1. have developed skills to apply some theoretical aspects to the actual field outside their class.
2. have developed data collection skills like observation, survey, interviewing, asking questions and filling in questionnaires, etc.
3. be able to write and present reports on filed work.
4. have developed some higher skills like critical thinking .

Course Duration:

Learners have to work 60 hours (for 2-credits) in a semester for Field Project.

15 hours (for 2-credits) for classroom activities.

- Project planning and preparation for the field project.
- Preparation of report etc.
- 45 hours (for 2-credits) for out-of-class activities.
- Implement the planned fieldwork activities according to the project schedule.
- Collect data through interviews, surveys, observations, etc.

Project Report should be of minimum 15 to 25 pages.

Report Structure:

The students will be required to submit a comprehensive report at the end of the Field Project (FP). A project report has to be brief in content and must include the following aspects:

1. Title Page:

Mentioning the title of the FP, name of the student, programme, institution, month and year.

2. Certificate of Completion:

A certificate issued by the supervisor appointed from the department confirming the successful completion of the FP.

3. Acknowledgments:

Recognizing individuals or organizations that provided support, guidance during the FP.

4. Table of Contents:

Providing a clear outline of the report's sections and page numbers.

5. Introduction:

Background information about the FP and its significance. Objectives and scope of the project.

6. Preparation for the FP: Description of planning for data collection, such as interviews, survey etc.7. Field Visits and Observations:

Detailed accounts of the field visits, including locations, dates, and observations made during the visits. Photographs or visual aids to support the observations.

8. Conclusion & Summary:

Summary of the key findings and outcomes of the FP. Reflections on the overall experience and learning during the project.

Broad guidelines for project report:

The field project report shall be prepared as per the broad guidelines given below:

- Font type and size: Times New Roman; size:12 for content and 14 for title; for Marathi kokil; size:16 for content and 18 for title; mangal; size:12 for content and 14 for title
- Line Space: 1.5 cm for content and 1 cm for in table work
- Paper Size: A4
- Margin: in Left-1.5cm, Up-Down-Right-1cm.

Guidelines for Community Engagement Programme (CEP)

Introduction:

Community engagement program (CEP) is included in undergraduate programme to increase community participation, foster collaboration, address community concerns, drive positive change by encouraging collective decision-making, often through building trust, gathering feedback, and empowering residents to actively shape their community's future.

This course requires learners to participate in community -based learning generally under the supervision of faculty. It will involve activities that expose learners to the socio-economic issues in the society.

Course Structure:

Name of the Course	Community Engagement Programme (CEP)
Course Code	25_UACEPENG401
Class	SYBA
Semester	IV
No of Credits	02
Nature	Practical
Type	Details to be filled by the concerned department.

Course Outcomes:

After completing the programme the learners would:

1. have gained an exposure to the socio-linguistic /cultural background of some local community around them.(e.g. school students/ farmers/ home makers/ handicaps)
2. be sensitized to some socio-cultural issues of the community.
3. have developed some concern , a sense of responsibility and a will to solve the socio-cultural issues identified by them.
4. have developed some skills of communicating in the community.

General Guidelines for CEP:

1. Learners are expected to complete this program in their fourth semester.
2. 2 credits will be allocated for the CEP.
3. Learners are expected to complete 60 hours of participation.
4. CEP must be separate from regular programs such as NSS, NCC and similar activities.

Implementation Mechanism of CEP:

1. The department will appoint a mentor, who will be a faculty member.
2. Each learner should keep a separate fieldwork diary to record their fieldwork experiences. Planning and preparation for CEP as well as working hours should be recorded in a diary.
3. Each learner must submit his/her CEP work report to the department through the faculty mentor assigned.
4. The work diary must be verified and signed by the assigned mentor.
5. Internal Viva - Voce will be conducted by the department.

Evaluation Pattern: (20:30)

Evaluate each learner for 50 marks per semester at department level.

Sr. No.	Evaluation Pattern	Distribution of Marks
1	Internal Evaluation : Presentation / Viva-Voce	20
2	External Evaluation: Actual work and work report	30

Report Structure of CEP:

The students will be required to submit a comprehensive report at the end of the CEP. Report should be of 5- 6 pages . A report has to be brief in content and must include the following aspects:

1. Title Page:
Name of the student, programme, institution, month and year.
2. Certificate of Completion:
A certificate issued by the mentor appointed from the department confirming the successful completion of the CEP.
3. Acknowledgments:
Recognizing individuals or organizations that provided support, guidance during the CEP.
4. CEP Work Experience:
Detailed description of work experience in CEP including CEP activity name and location, dates, and work experience. Photographs or visual aids to support work experience.

5. Conclusion & Summary:

Reflections on the overall experience and learning during the CEP activity.

Appendix:

- CEP work Dairy must be attached along with the report.
 - CEP Events Photographs
